SENIOR PROPHECY 1978

Welcome! Class of 1978. It's really good to see so many of our classmates at our ten year reunion. All seem to be doing well and overlooking the "Law of expanding hips, double chins, no hair, and sagging cheeks (facial or otherwise)," no one has changed a single bit. We shall begin the gala event as soon as everyone arrives. I'd advise those who are not yet here to hurry for Mr. Odell is waiting by the door and giving out icy glares, along with a demerit by their name, to whoever dares come in tardy. Old habits die hard. We seem to be having technical difficulties with our sound system. There seems to be an annoying chipmunk sound in the background. Thanks to Bill Baldwin we seem to have located the problem, Jean Adams and Janis Jorgensen were laughing. We're sorry to say that Cindi Acevedo had a very shocking experience. She stuck her finger in an outlet and now has ruined her chances to appear on the "Long and Silky" hair commercial. Val Belk has gone into the taxidermist business. His newest project, stuffing a wild turkey, Tim Belnap. Very realistic looking, Val. Conrad Belnap has entered the Jimmy Durante look-alike contest but was turned down. His nose was too big. Max Anderson and Mickey McIver now own and operate the Pepsi Manufacturing Plant. They found it was much cheaper to buy the whole factory than to buy for their needs. Could Todd Talbot please tell Robert Prouse, Dale Capson, Reed Goodman, and Erwin Prouse to tie their horses outside? We seem to be having problems with people slipping as they come in. We also have complaints from the janitor, Tony Daun, saying he doesn't do floors. Congratulations to Brad Waddoups and Jeri Elison who are now happily married. Melody Jones still can't figure out how they had 9 kids in 8 years. Tawnja Elison is still State F.H.A. President but they changed their organization to FUTURE HAGS OF AMERICA. Pam Peterson, Valerie Hawker, and Pam Bartauskay have formed a commune in Poland, "Polish Americans Unite." They offer a special invitation to Bryan Mecham, Gary Rainsdon, and Jerry Bingham. They feel that Bryan, Gary, and Jerry would feel right at home. We have, unbelievably, some fellow class mates that made it big Kristy Merrill is the editor of the Blackfoot news. It now contains 12 pages of comic strips. Sherrilynn Wallace is "climbing the ladder" to fame. She is the window-washer for the White House. Lynn Mouring seems to have made a career for himself in politics. We always knew his dishonest, cheating ways would make him a success. Brian VanOrden is now an insurance salesman. His motto is "You're in good hands with VanOrden." Kevin Tew is also a business man. He is an equal opportunity employer. He has hired 10 blondes, 10 brunettes, 10 redheads In the midst of us we also have some prominent people in the field of acting. Mary Stolworthy is now starring in the sequel to the "Towering Inferno." She's the building. Tracy Watson has written, directed, and stars in a film about himself, "A Star Is Born." Larett Evans and Tyra Polatis have broken into show business with the Lawrence Welk Show. They blow the bubbles for the champagne music. Jeff Vail works there also. He dances with the old ladies in the audience, also the old men. Roger Thurston is now the "Unknown Comedian" on The Gong Show. Carlie Ellis and Deanne Anderson still haven't quite caught on to why we wears a paper sack over his head. They think he's hyperventilating, or that he has a serious case of acne. Anyway, we do all agree that Roger looks much better with a sack over his face. Sheila Wood and Julia Wray are co-starring in the "Odd Couple." They have very stiff competition from Carolene Peterson and Wendy Scott. Jeninne Simmons and Deanna Jensen are new stars in the tickle deoderant commercial. Laughing was the only line they could remember. Kelly Atwood is now an astronaut for N.A.S.A. He's well-known for being able to be in space without ever leaving the earth. If we could please have Stasie Paesl, Linda Hulse, and Elaine Stander stop taking turns playing one-on-one with each other, we'll go on. Also, will you please tell Wendy Burgon that the refreshment table isn't the balance beam.

Don Atwood is now a philosopher of life's greatest mysteries. He is presently writing a book about his deep philosphy entitled "Which Came First, The Chicken or the Egg?" Kent Magelby has gone into the underwear business. He always did want to find a career in cracking people up. Craig Schwabedissen, Bryce Harper and Don Jensen were hired to clean the top floor windows of the Empire State Building. Instead of using a platform to raise them up, they juts stand on each other's shoulders. Rochelle Hogan is now a traveling saleswoman. She always did get around. Robyn Lynn Williams now advertises Hostess Ding-Dongs. As they say, it takes one to know one. Kathi Packer is now in the jewelry business. She made millions from selling all her old engagement rings. Everett Hudson has joined a nudist colony. He graduated with a B.A. Degree. Talking about degrees, Nancy Fredrick Davidson and Lorrie Hennefer Richards have received their M.R.S. Degrees. Julie Katseanes Gardner not only got her M.R.S. Degree, but went on to get her M.O.M. Degree. Jackie Peck has just graduated from the Mark Eden Developing School. She's now known as "Decked Peck." We're sorry to say that Craig Empey couldn't make it tonight. He didn't want to miss one night of sleeping outside. By the way, Craig wants to know who's been cellophaning his toilet seats? Shelley Anderson's not here either. She's still crusing Blackfoot in her V.W. Lorraine Richards sends her apologies too. She's staying home, for when John "Knox", she answers. Winfield Anderson is the security guard at State Hospital South. He says he brings greetings from Mike Evans who is Student Body President there, and Paul Jorgensen who has made quite a career on the wrestling team there. Paul has, unbelievably, learned to wrestle with no hands. His strait-jacket has helped immensely in learning this technique. LaTonne Hale and LaRae Sanders are Snake River's new accountants. The school seems to be $50,000 short, but I'm sure it's not their fault. By the way, could you please tell them to move their "Rolls-Royce" out of the NO-PARKING zone? Allan Jemmett had a stroke of bad luck. Connie Falter told Allan to stick her saxophone up his nose and blow it out, and wouldn't you know it, Allan did. Bart Jones and Sonja Heady are still pursuing their careers in track. Bart lost so much weight they now use him as the lines to separate the track lanes. Sonja may be a little late. She wanted to run cross-country. She should be in New York by 1989. Kerry Poole, Jeff Stantliff, and Robyn Lee Williams are the new owners of the Plaza Twin Theatres. They are celebrating their grand opening with a biography about themselves --The Three Stooges. Serena Wixom and Donita Atwood have opened a turquoise shop. You can see all their merchandise; Donita's wearing it. Leslie Bott is now operating a space shop for Star Wars fans. It's called "The Little RoBatts." We seem to be having a little commotion back there. Kurt Thompson, would you please take your Doberman outside until he gets it through his head that Kerry Schneider's red pants are not fire hydrants. As soon as that's taken care of we'll go on. Roger Williams has finally found a deeper meaning in life. He's now Mr. Whipple, the "Charmin" man. Squeezing toilet paper really turns him on! A moment of silence in memory of Periann Anderson. She accidentally pulled the plug in the bath tub while she was still in it and went down the drain. Lynn Seamons has amounted to more than we ever thought he would. He is now the Sanitation man of Bingham County. You could say, he's full of it. Julie Fullmer is Drill Mistress of the Ku Klux Klan. She really has done wonders with the white sheets and masks. She has added sequins around the cut-out eye holes. Very feminine touch, Julie. Jeanie Pieper is still in the cheerleading business. She is working at the Nursing Home cheering on the elderly in hopes they made it to the bathroom in time. Tracy Baker and Carma Christiansen are the new "Breck" girls. They aren't the models, they bottle the shampoo. Julie Fisher is a well-known millionaire. Whoever said "Silence isn't golden?" George Shindurling is now the head of the teaching department at the school for the deaf and dumb. They're the only ones who would listen to him without falling asleep. Laurel Talbot has been accepted to Taber Tech. She received a scholarship for reading the most western books in the history of Taber. Laurel wants to know if anybody wants to trade Louis L'Amour paperbacks tonight. Richard Park has become a Seminary teacher. He teaches his students about the evils of "Parking" on their first date. Lori Saxton and Renae Thompson have made good use of their long hair. They stand on the corner of "Wagon Wheel" and swat flies. Tess Andrew has become a certified beautician. She can really work wonders on hair. Just look what she has done for Cindi. Bill Martin never got married. He just couldn't find someone he loved more than himself. Angela Parris and Laura Polatis have written a new cookbook that has recently been banned. The health officials learned it was causing food poisoning. Michelle Stucki is presently the "Happy Homemaker." She knows nothing about cooking, but smiles a lot. It makes people think she knows what she's doing. Clint Dance is employed as the Budweiser Distributor. It's the only profession he's had any experience in. Shawn McCurdy tried out for the "Munchkin Olympics" but was replaced by Denise Watt. What a "low" blow to a man's ego. Have you ever thought about the "Short and Sassy" look, Shawn? Carolyn Steffler and Marcene Hale have become nuns. Pope Kelly Harmon is still in shock. Lynda Merrill shaved her head and tried to become a monk. She didn't meet the qualification so she now Kojack's stand in. Serena Williams, Kelly Shawver, and Kevin Coles all tried out for Charlie's Angels. Serena and Kelly were rejected because Kevin was the only one that looked good in a bikini. Mike Bowman has made the big times in the N.F.L. He is the Maintenance man for the astro-turf. Rob Lieberman is a professional wrestler. He's known for his quick take downs. Deloy Thayne and Dolly Parton have made it big in Country Western music. Deloy serves as her back-up singer, for Dolly has all the help up front she needs. Clayton Call and Rachel Martin are still helping the Snake River Annual Staff. They won't give up on a hopeless cause. Craig Lofgreen is still an avid raquetball player, but instead of playing off the wall, he just bounces it off his nose. Vanice Hansen has opened up a bakery; buns are her specialty. LoVina Bartlett, Barbara Jess and Ken Hurd are the new stars of the Rolaid commercial. LoVina and Barbara ask Ken what spells relief and Ken answers B-U-R-P. It finally looks like Kevin Young and Kevin Harmon have got their hearing aids to work. They're asking everybody if they missed anything, but everyone has either left or gone to sleep. We've just heard that Jacque and Gloria Tominaga formed a partnership and opened a store in bathroom appliances. It is called "Jolly Japanese Johns," and since this is where everyone will want to go after listening to the Senior Prophecy, we will come to a close. Jacque just notified me to tell you all to hurry if you want good seats. Good Evening!

The Senior Officers would like to thank the class of '78 and their advisors, Mr.
Ozell and Mr. Flayn for their cooperation and help in making this the best year ever.

There's not much time remaining
But still there's hope
One dying wish
To make this living prayer unfold.

I know there's something waiting
Beyond the clouds
But soon all time will pass
And then there'll be no doubt.

And I am sure
That there's a brighter place
Just waiting there for me
Out where the day no longer lingers on
In endless fantasy
I must wait
But not be slow.

There's not much time remaining
But still I hope
That with each passing day
The memories will turn to gold.

Wow! Flashers in the library.

And whats wrong with a Sophomore girl dating a Junior boy?

your too heavy for me to help up!

What! A Bunny in a wildlife magazine?

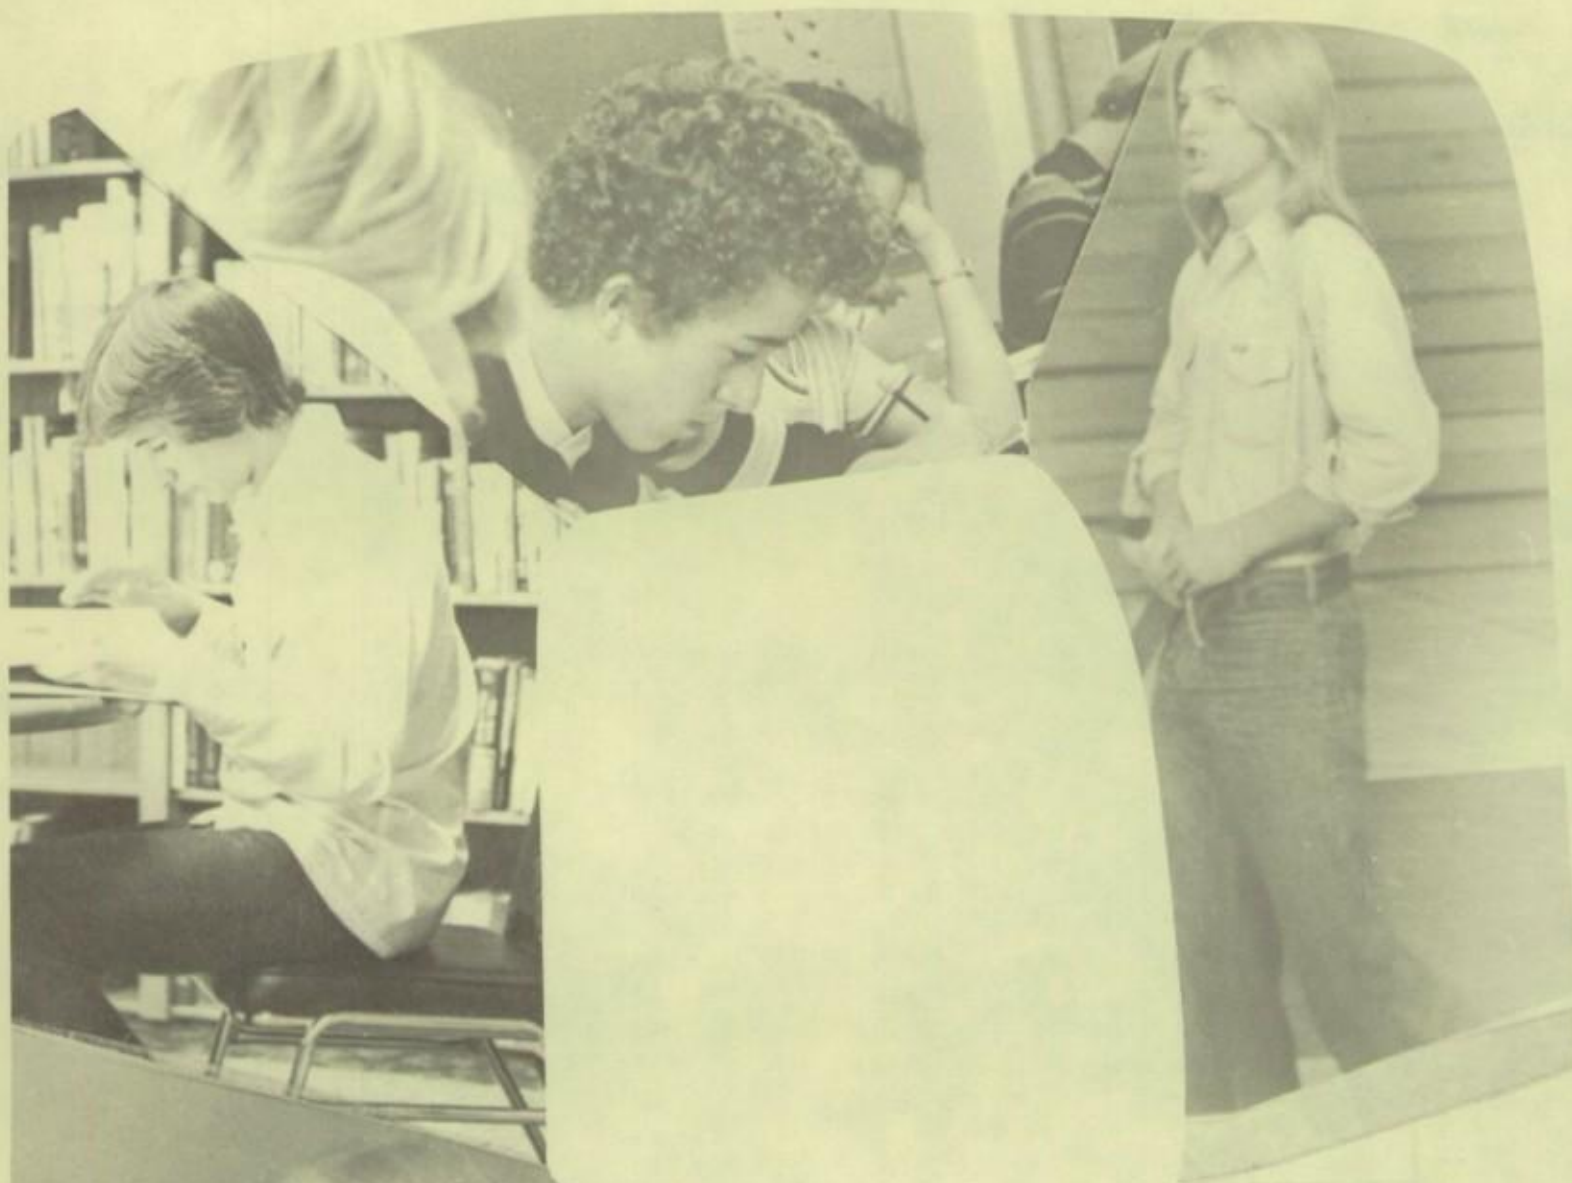

You dare to take my picture.

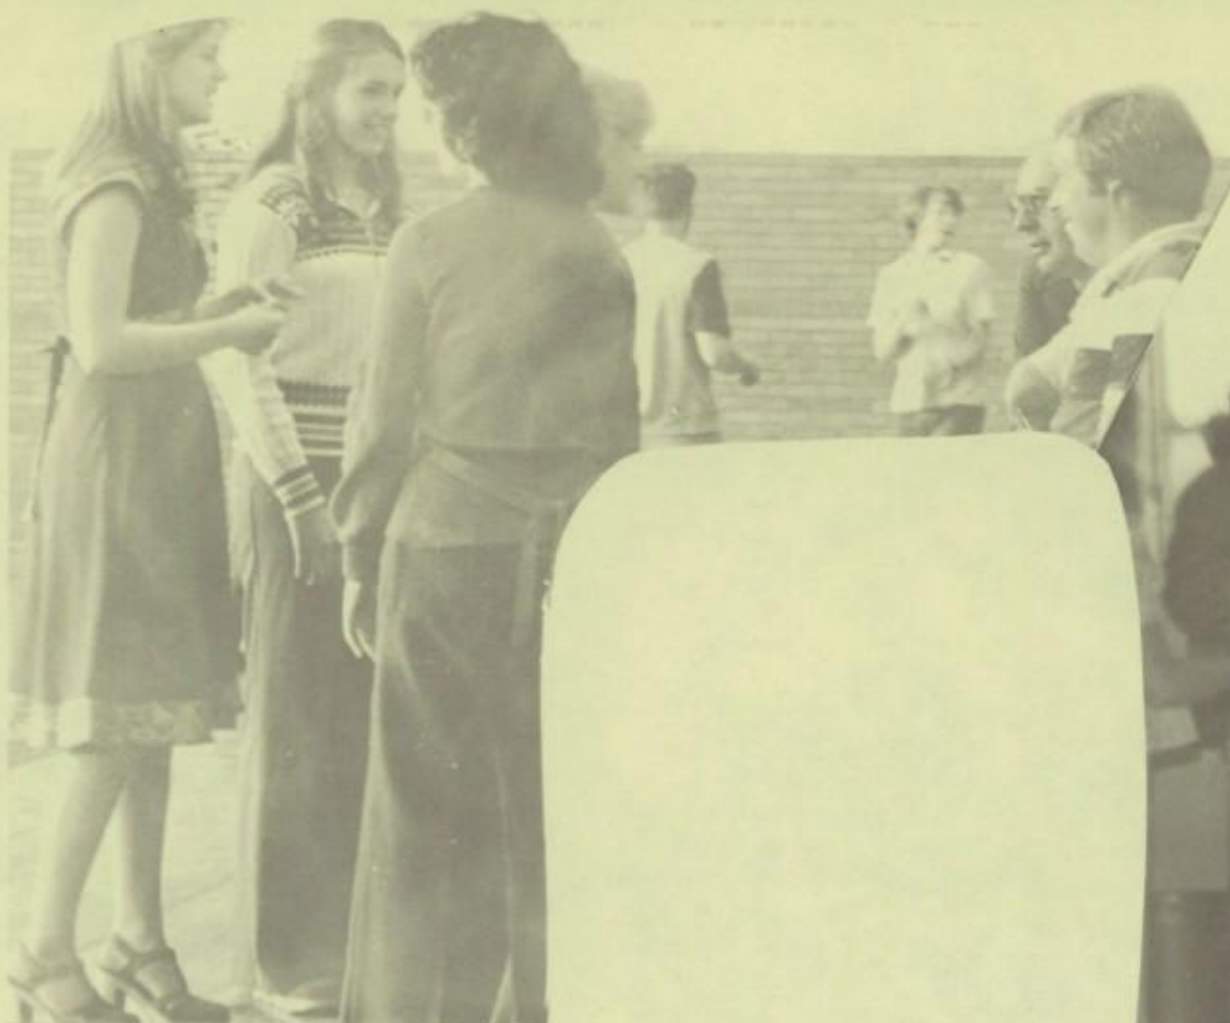

Ultra Bright wants to proposition you!

It really is alive. I thought Mark was kidding!

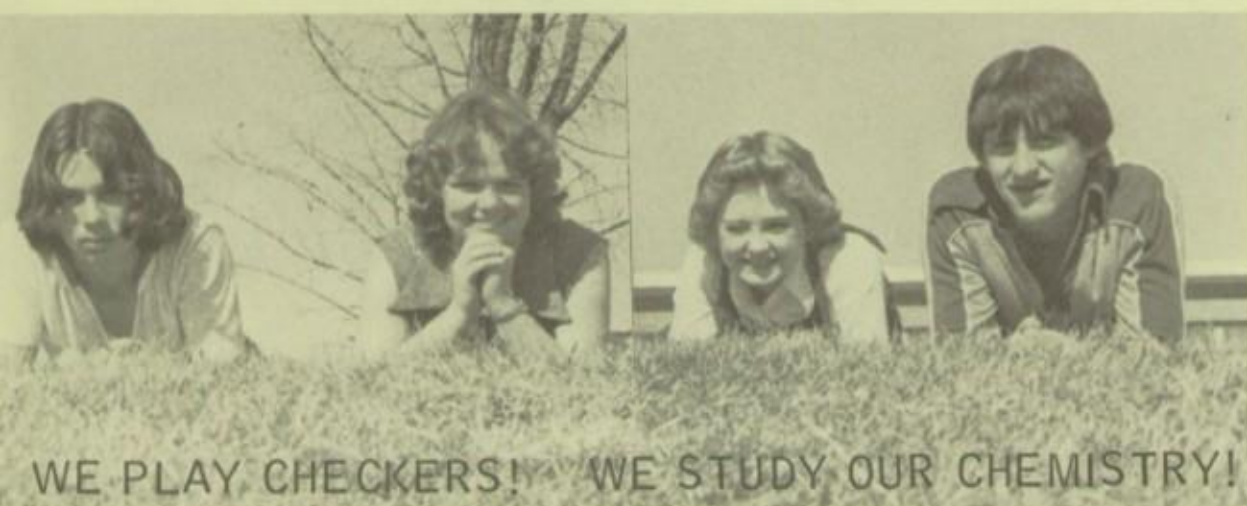

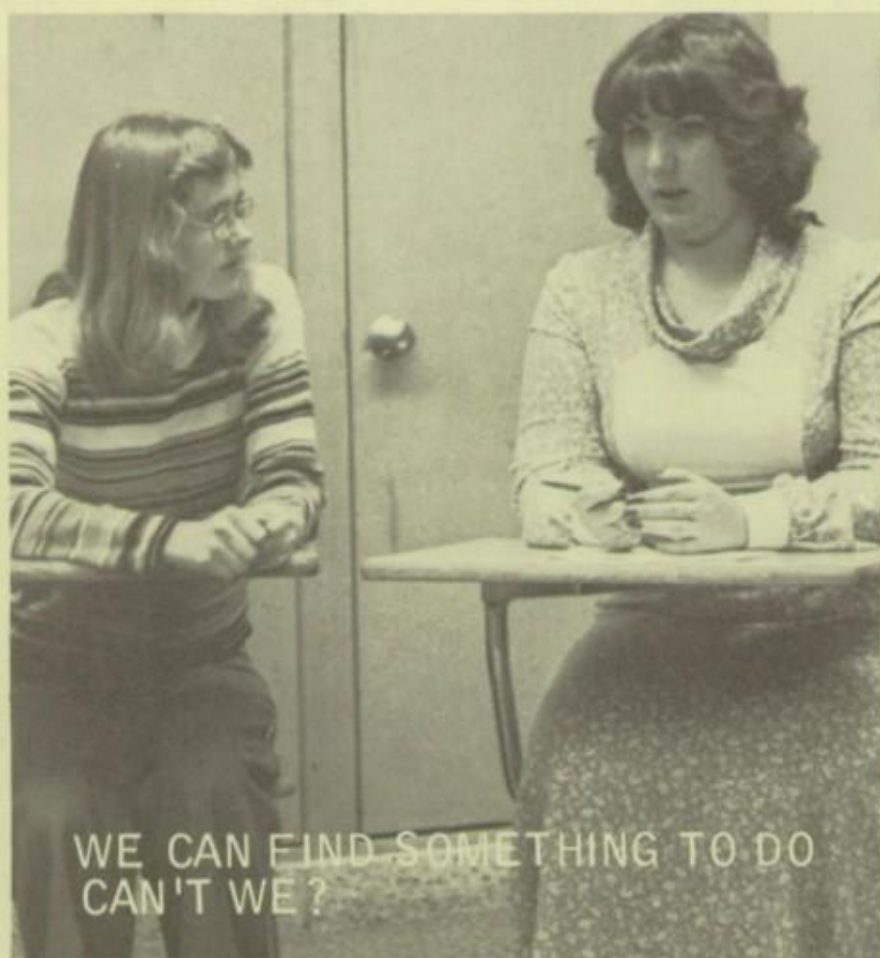

I ACT INNOCENT SO MY MOM WILL GIVE ME WHAT I WANT.

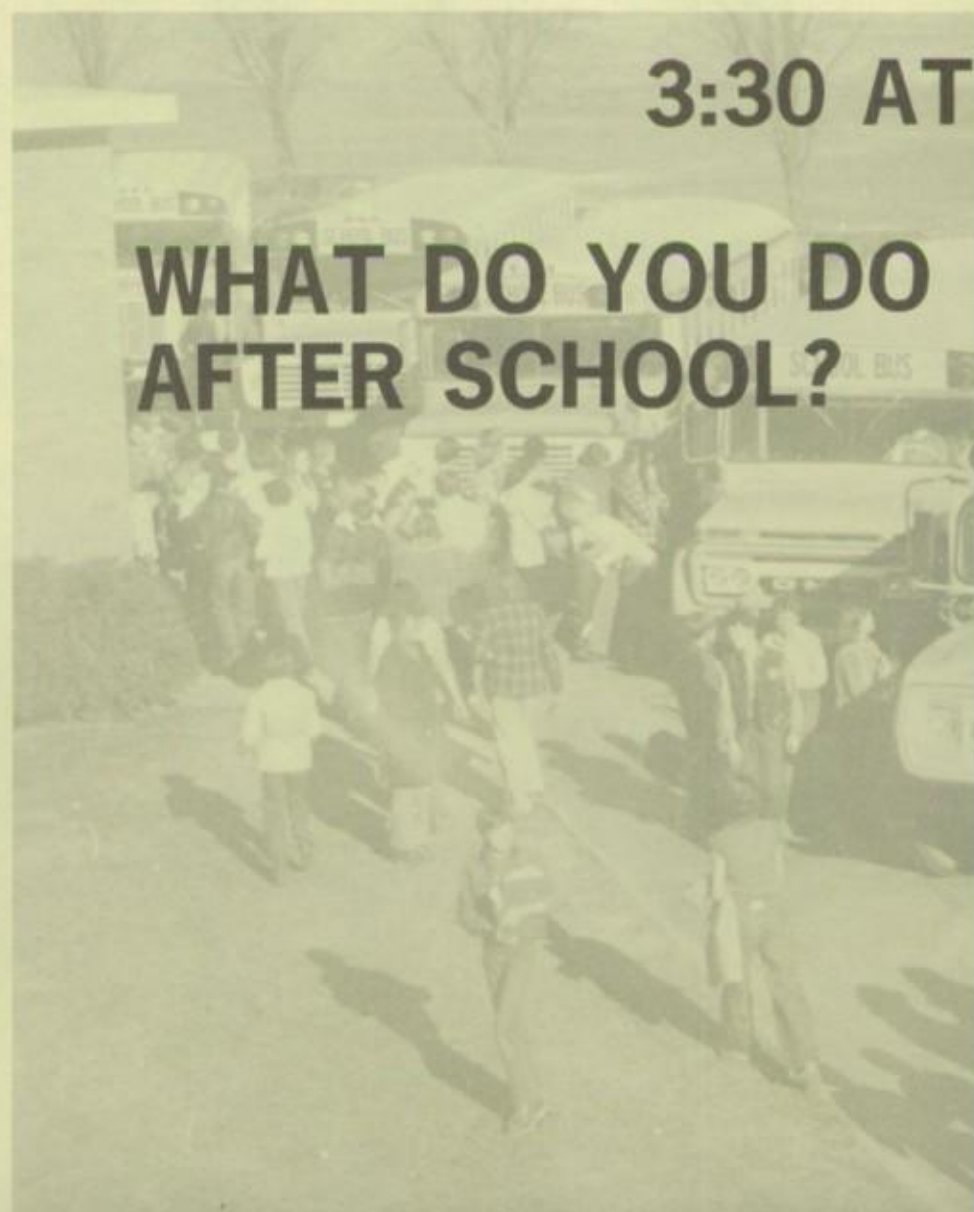

I GO HOME, OF COURSE!

WE PLAY CHECKERS! WE STUDY OUR CHEMISTRY!

WE CAN FIND SOMETHING TO DO CAN'T WE?

3:30 AT
WHAT DO YOU DO AFTER SCHOOL?

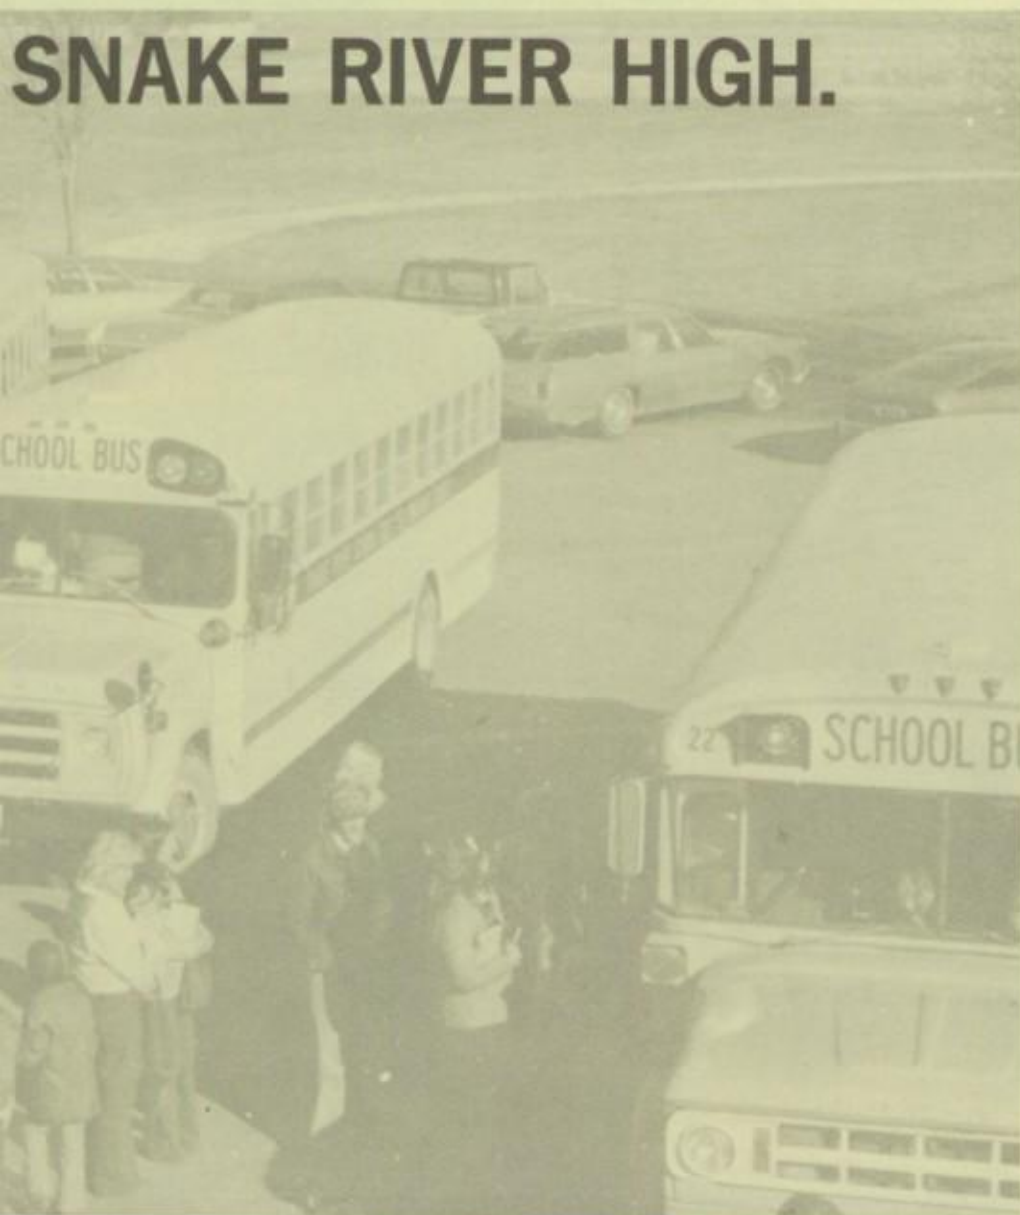

MONKEY AROUND

GUESS!

CANDID WINNERS

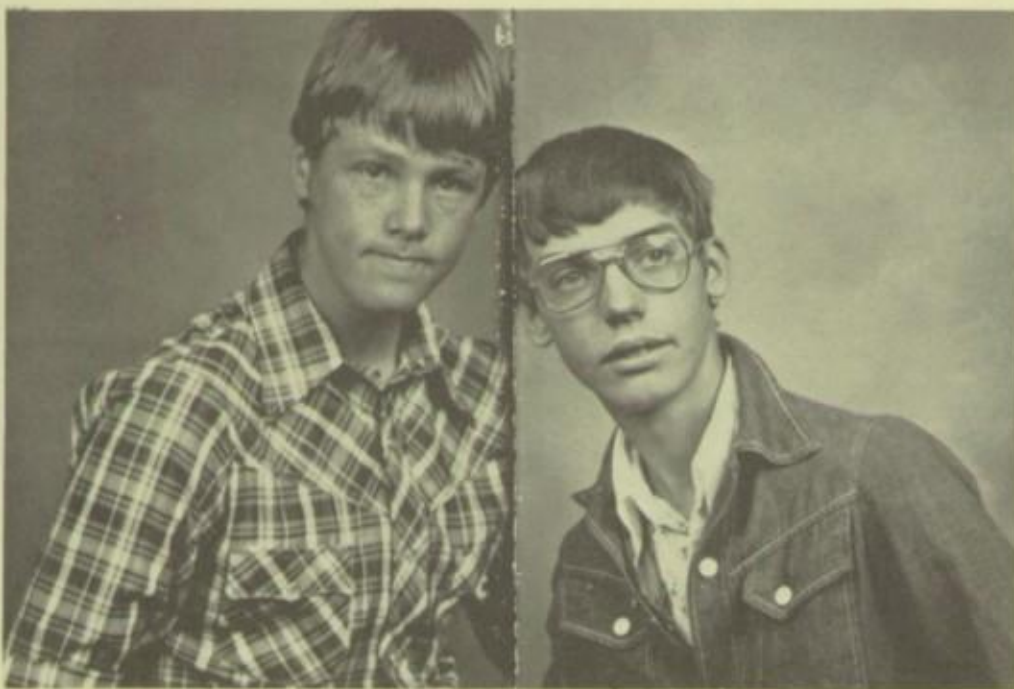

Well, if you're going to take that attitude!

The way you were...

I clean my glasses the natural way.

What do you mean there is no Easter Bunny!

I can't stop!

Does a chicken have lips?
